Amount

1. Subtract from your draft register any charges listed on this draft statement which you have not previously deducted from your balance. Also add any dividends.

2. Enter draft balance shown on this statement

3. Enter deposits made later than the ending date on this statement

4. In your draft register check off all drafts paid and record both at left list numbers and amounts of all unPaid drafts.

5. Subtract total drafts outstanding

6. This amount should equal your draft register balance.

IF YOU DO NOT BALANCE

Verify additions and subtractions - Above and in your draft register. Compare the dollar amounts of deposits listed on this statement with the deposit amounts recorded in your draft register. If you have any questions regarding your checking account, please call the credit union.
YOUR BILLING RIGHTS-KEEP THIS NOTICE FOR FUTURE USE

This notice contains important information about your rights and responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

NOTIFY US IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR STATEMENT. If your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transaction on your statement, write us on a separate sheet at the address listed on your statement. Write to us as soon as possible. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information:

• Your name and account number
• The dollar amount of the suspected error

Describe the error and explain, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, describe the item you are not sure about.

YOUR RIGHTS AND OUR RESPONSIBILITIES AFTER WE RECEIVE YOUR WRITTEN NOTICE. We must acknowledge your letter within 30 days, unless we have corrected the error by then. Within 90 days we must either correct or explain why we believe the statement was correct. After we receive your letter, we cannot try to collect any amount you question, or report you as delinquent. We can continue to send statements to you for the amount you question, including finance charges, and we can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit. You do not have to pay any questioned amount while we are investigating, but we are still obligated to pay the parts of your statement that are not in question.

If we find that we made a mistake on your statement, you will not have to pay any finance charges related to any questioned amount. If we didn’t make a mistake, you may have to pay finance charges, and you will have to make up any missed payments on the questioned amount. In either case, we will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date that it is due.

If you fail to pay the amount that we think you owe, we may report you as delinquent. However if our explanation does not satisfy you and you write to us within ten days telling us that you still refuse to pay, we must tell anyone that we report you to that the matter has been settled between us when it finally is. If we don’t follow these rules, we can’t collect the first $50 of the questioned amount, even if your statement was correct.

SPECIAL RULE FOR CREDIT CARDS

If you have a problem with the quality of property or services that you purchased with a credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the property or services. There are two exceptions to this right: (a) You must have made the purchase in your home state, or if not within your home state within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and (b) The purchase price must have been more than $50. These limitations do not apply if we own or operate the merchant or if we mailed you the advertisement for the property or services.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS

Write us at the address shown on the front of this statement which is listed after the words, “Send inquires To” as soon as you can if you think your statement or receipt is wrong, or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the first statement on which the error or problem appeared. You can telephone us, but doing so will not preserve your rights. In your letter, give us the following information:

• Your name and account number
